Coalition of Hispanic Artists (CHA) is a 501 © (3) nonprofit organization founded in April 2007 and incorporated in March 2008, and is form of a volunteer board of directors of different nationalities.

Mission Statement

CHA' s mission is to provide a secure environment for Hispanic Artists who join the organization by providing said artists with the necessary exposure allowing their talent to be promoted, enjoyed and appreciated by art admirers, providing grounds for interaction between artists and art viewers through education, group and solo exhibitions, and invitations. In so doing, it seeks to inspire creativity, celebrate diversity, and empower the artists of Hispanic cultural heritage to realize their potential by making a positive impact within their homes, their community, and the world at large.
